

One island, one party

16. June 2013

- Danube Island Festival
- Events

In a few days, it's that time again and the Danube Island is once again dedicated to music, party and entertainment.

From 21st June to 23th June (so to say next weekend :-)) it is again the time of the Danube Island Festival. This year, even with an anniversary as it celebrates its 30th birthday.

And due to this occasion, the organizers have come up with man ideas for you, my dear readers and guests to offer you 3 days more than just a colorful and varied program. There will be really something for every taste.

So what you expect?

Music fans of all genres will definitely love it, because whether hip-hop, pop and oldies, country and western, there is something for everyone.

Sports fans find in these 3 days also a huge offer as Zumba, the climbing garden, streeball challenge, and much more invite to join.

And for children? They are also a main part of this festival so many activities are witing for them: a the Middle Ages camp, painting competitions, the Okidoki Kinderfreunde Islanc and a lot more exciting things.

You see, an enormous programe is waiting for you my dear readers and guests, and the best, this is all for free :-) no admissions :-)

Sincerely

Your Stephanie from the apartments Ferchergasse

Add a comment

