Now that spring has officially started, Easter is not far away. And in just a few days the festivities around the Easter begin in Vienna.

From traditional Easter markets to the musical offer from the Osterklang to the joyful Easter festival in the Prater, it is a lot that waits for you.

Therefore, I have prepared for you today an overview, to what you can look forward to in April.

Easter markets are colourful and joyful

Classics that are also well-known beyond the city limits are the Easter markets in Vienna, where a colorful mix of traditional Easter decoration, Easter culinary treats and a cheerful social program await you.

One of the best known markets is in front of an amazing scenery. It is the Easter market at Schönbrunn Palace. More than 60 exhibitors bring an Easter flair to you. For children, the Easter bunny workshop, the Easter nest hunt and the Kindermuseum wait. In the meantime, the adults enjoy "Jazz am Ostermarkt" or the many culinary specialties.

The biggest tower of Easter eggs in Europe with more than 40,000 eggs awaits you at the Old Viennese Easter market on Freyung. And this market too attracts with beautiful handicrafts, Easter specialties and a colorful program.

Only a few steps away you will find the next Easter market, the handicraft market on Am Hof square, which is dedicated to the traditions of Easter and handicrafts.

Near the apartments here in Hernalds, the 17th district, the next highlight waits for you. From 29th March to 16th April the Kalvarienbergfest takes place again. You really can become active here and make some Easter presents at the art workshops. Live music and a cheerful children's program complete the program.

A very special Easter market is the vegan Easter market in the Arcotel Kaiserwasser on the 8th and 9th of April, where it is all about vegan alternatives. Rüdiger Dahlke, the well-known doctor, author and passionate vegan, will also be present. There is a wide vegan range of food and beverages, fashion and art, as well as a colorful, lively social program.

Exquisite culture program

Also from the cultural side Vienna has much to offer in April. A first-class stage program waits for you at OsterKlang. This year, the festival focuses on dance under the slogan "From dance of death to Habanera". You can find all information about the program at www.osterklang.at

A festival for the whole family

A festival for the whole family will take place on the Ostersonntag, 16 April from 11h, in the Prater. There's live music and a colorful children's program with Punch and Judy-style theater, creative crafts and games of skill.

Well, lots is going on in April in Vienna. I wish you pleasant days during Easter time in our beautiful city and maybe you will also see the Easter bunny.

Greetings from the Appartements Ferchergasse

Stephanie
